The Rest of the Term

Quantitative Reasoning II (INF 1220)

Last revised: November 1, 2026

Dates

When	Who	What
Mon Nov 2, in class	001	Draft workshop. Bring two printed copies of your draft.
Tue Nov 3, in class	002, 003	Draft workshop. Bring two printed copies of your draft.
Wed Nov 4, 8:00am	001	Lightning-round slide due, to Populi
Wed Nov 4, in class	001	Lightning round, first day
Wed Nov 4, 11:59pm	all	Homework 5, two peer reviews, due to Populi. Email or hand each review to its author.
Thu Nov 5, 8:00am	002, 003	Lightning-round slide due, to Populi
Thu Nov 5, in class	002, 003	Lightning round. Last day of class.
Mon Nov 9, 8:00am	001	Lightning-round slide due, to Populi
Mon Nov 9, in class	001	Lightning round, second day. Last day of class.
Mon Nov 9, 11:59pm	all	Report and notebook due, to Populi
Nov 10–17	all	Oral exams, 15 minutes, scheduled individually. Booking link to come.

What each thing is

- Homework 5. Two peer reviews, on the form handed out in the draft workshop. You are graded on your review, not on the draft you read.
- The lightning-round slide. One slide: your question, your data, one table or figure, your answer, your biggest limitation. 4 minutes to present and 1 minute of questions. Not graded. See The Lightning Round.
- The report. At most 1,000 words of prose. Tables and figures are uncapped and go after the prose.
- The notebook. Fully run, shared so anyone with the link can open it, and producing every number, table, and figure in the report.
- The oral exam. 15 minutes, one-on-one, no resources. I bring a printed copy of your work for us both to reference.

Deliverable guidance — to come

A separate document will set out what the report contains section by section, how to build your regression table, and the rules for tables and figures. It is not posted yet. Nothing in it will change the dates above or the 1,000-word cap.